

Please apply meaningful enforcement mechanisms for violations of your rules, especially regarding accessibility of emergency information. Your past response to complaints has been to serve notice of the violation and issue a reminder of the rules. But absent fines or other penalties, violators continue to disregard your rules. As things stand, it is more profitable for a TV distributor to disregard your emergency information rules than to observe them.